(In the space provided below, please explain in detail why the 35 U.S.C. 371(c) elements (or continuing U.S. application) were not timely filed.)

UNAVOIDABLE:

It was unavoidable due to many mistakes wherein the whole invention had to be changed to comply with corrections pointed out by the patent examiner.

In order to avoid coincidences with other existing inventions in this art, it became necessary to obtain advanced information for updating the invention with consultations from a colleague in India.
